WESTERN DIVISION

ADRIAN DUNN,

Plaintiff,

v

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

Defendant.

No. 4:16-CV00493-BCW

MOTION OBJECTING TO GOVERNMENT'S CALCULATION OF INTEREST

Comes now, Adrian Dunn, Plaintiff, pro se, and hereby brings his objection to the Government's calculation of interest and in support of states the following:

1. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement ("ICE") agents executed a search warrant and seized property belonging to Plaintiff that consisted of a 1974 Chevrolet Caprice, a 2005 Chevrolet Corvette, and $41,000 in U.S. currency.

2. The 1974 Chevrolet Caprice was sold at auction by Defendants for $5,600.

3. The 2005 Chevrolet Corvette was sold at auction by Defendants for $23,700.

4. During a hearing on July 18, 2017, and the Government conceded that the administrative forfeiture of the Caprice, Corvette, and $41,000 in U.S. currency was improper in relation to Plaintiff's request for return of property.

5. Subsequently in 2021, the Government determined that Plaintiff's property had gained interest in the total amount of less than $2,000 although nearly thirteen years has passed.

6. Plaintiff calculated that this amount pertains to the yearly amount of interest that his property has gained. Further, that Defendants have had in their possession which is nearly $71,000 for nearly thirteen years, property which belongs to him and Plaintiff should receive nearly $2,000 per year in interest for his personal property.

7. Therefore, Plaintiff respectfully objects to the Government's calculation of total interest.

Dated: September 6, 2021

Respectfully submitted,

Adrian Dunn
